RealtimeUK, established in 1996, is a CG Production company based in Lancashire, directed and guided by some of the industry's most creative producers and directors from the games and television industry. We've worked with some of the world's leading companies, producing high-impact CG animations for video games, commercials and digital campaigns.

To date, RealtimeUK's client base boasts such well known names as Sony Computer Entertainment Europe, Codemasters, Disney Interactive Studios, Evolution Studios, Juice Games, Namco, Eidos and THQ.

We offer a full creative solution from concept through to script and design and on to final completion. Our services include Cinematic Trailers, Intro Movies, Cut Scenes, Concept, X-Movies and Marketing and Advertising material including animation and print images
